

Save Money on Office Supplies with KABA's Office Depot Affinity Partnership!

KABA and Office Depot have formed an affinity program exclusively for KABA members. Established in 1986, Office Depot is now one of the largest office supply and service sellers in the world. The company hit sales of $15 billion in 2006 through its retail stores, business solutions unit, and international division, making it the second largest office supply dealer in the nation. Now, KABA brings Office Depot to you, at a cost savings for your business.

KABA's affinity partnership will provide members with exclusive pricing on a core list of standard supplies. Additionally, each member who takes advantage of the program is to customize the core list by adding another 20 frequently-ordered items of their choice, also at exclusive pricing. What's more, all other items are priced at substantial discounts – up to 7% below retail!

Through Office Depot Business Solutions, companies can order products through a catalog or online and receive them at their door, generally within one day. Companies are also eligible to receive a store purchasing card to shop at Office Depot retail stores and still receive their customized, discounted pricing.

As with all of KABA's affinity programs, any revenue generated will be streamed into the KABA Foundation, a 501(c)3 entity which facilitates the KABA Mentor Program, Scholarship Program, and other initiatives in education. Ultimately, your business' savings in office supplies will play a part in contributing to the well-being of our community!
